June 26, 2017

I am pleased to announce the addition of Randy Dennis to our TRS team. Beginning August 1, 2017, Randy will assume the role of Chief Financial Officer. Randy assumes this position currently held by long time TRS employee, Steve Boyers. Randy comes to TRS from the Judicial Council of Georgia where he has served for the past 16 years as the Director of Financial Administration. Randy also worked for the Georgia Department of Audits for 11 years prior to his current role.

Randy earned his Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from the State University of West Georgia. Randy is a Certified Public Accountant and has also earned his Certified Government Financial Manager designation.

Randy holds current affiliations with a number of financial officer groups and is also a board member of the Georgia United Credit Union representing thousands of Georgia State employees.

I know Randy will be an excellent addition to the team! So please join me in welcoming him to the Teachers Retirement System of Georgia.

About the Teachers Retirement System of Georgia

TRS administers the fund from which teachers in the state's public schools, many employees of the University System of Georgia, and certain other designated employees in educational-related work environments receive retirement benefits. TRS manages the retirement accounts of 265,048 active members and pays a monthly benefit to 122,629 retired members and survivors, with a retiree payroll in excess of $4.0 billion dollars per year.
